

Statute of the Secretariat of the Special Commission for Supporting Talents and the Olympiad of Yazd Shahid Sadoughi University of Medical Sciences

Statute of the Secretariat of the Special Commission for the Support of Talents and Olympiads of Yazd University of Medical Sciences:

Article 1: In order to provide the ground for attracting, guiding and flourishing of elites and brilliant talents and according to this statute, the Secretariat of the Special Commission for the Support of Talents and Olympiads was agreed in principle.

Article 2: Objectives:

-Implementing incentive policies in the university to encourage talented people to carry out activities that lead to the promotion of the university and the public interest.

-Providing the possibility of benefiting from special educational, research and welfare facilities for the elite and brilliant talents of the university.

Article 3: Scope:

All students subject to the regulations of brilliant talents of the Ministry of Health, Treatment and Medical Education in different fields and educational levels in each Universities and schools of medical sciences all over the country.

Article 4: Description of duties:

-Identification of elites and brilliant talents based on the relevant regulations and rules.

-Use of various educational and research facilities and grants.

-Investigation of issues and problems of the elite and brilliant talents of the university.

Article 5: Elements:

A: Chairman of the Commission: The President of the University as the Chairman of the Special Commission has the following responsibilities:

-Organizing and chairing the meetings of the Commission in order to attract material and spiritual support.

B: Vice President: The Vice Chancellor of the University is introduced as the Vice President of the Special Commission.

C- Secretary of the Commission: The director of the Office of Talents of the University will be introduced as the Secretary of the Special Commission and will be responsible for the following tasks:

-Implementation of regulations submitted by relevant institutions

D: Other members: Director General of University Education, President of EDC, Vice Chancellor for Research and Technology, Vice Chancellor for Students and Culture, three faculty members familiar with elite affairs at the suggestion of the university president and the approval of the president of the university, a talented student at the suggestion of the University Talents Office and approved by the President of the University.

Article 6: Meetings and Approvals: The meetings of the special commission are formalized once every three months with the presence of $2/3^{\text{rd}}$ of members. The approvals of the special commission are considered as the approval of the university board of directors by the majority vote of the members and are binding.

The End